

WELCOME TO FOLEY

Looking for a memorable getaway that's near the beautiful Alabama beaches? Come and visit Foley. Our coastal community offers genuine Southern charm and endless year-round activities and events. Foley is a must-see destination for enjoyable family adventures.

From the unique local shops and artists of Foley's quaint and historic downtown to intriguing city museums, laid-back paddling trips on serene waterways or OWA, an exciting family entertainment destination, our coastal community provides plenty of options to keep every age entertained.

A true mecca for the ultimate shopper, Foley boasts name-brand stores at the Tanger Outlets. Or head to one of our many antique shops. On the hunt for new home décor, supplies for a craft project or sporting equipment? We've got it. Foley is the one-stop place to shop!

Whether you've been exploring the great outdoors or searching for the best bargain of the day, you will have worked up an appetite. With almost 100 diverse dining options available, you'll have no trouble pleasing both your palate and your pocketbook. Southern-style BBQ, fresh Alabama Gulf seafood or homemade Italian gelato – there is definitely no shortage of options.

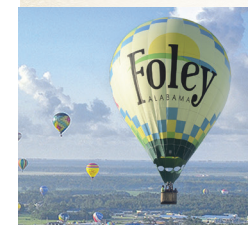

At OWA, Foley's new adventure park, twenty-two amusement park rides and live performance theaters provide exciting entertainment for the entire family. Shopping venues and delicious restaurant options are located along the winding thoroughfare surrounding a beautiful lake with dancing fountains. At OWA, there's something for the young and young at heart.

We can't wait to have you as our guest. Let us help you navigate your way to the locals' favorite restaurants, shopping and outdoor trails. Foley is a best-kept secret that's just too good not to share.

Foley Welcome Center
PO Box 448
Foley, AL 36536

Visit Foley!

Welcome Center
(251) 943-1200 • 104 N. McKenzie Street
VISITFOLEY.COM

FOLEY RAILROAD STATION

Stop in at the historic depot and explore several attractions.

Foley's Model Train Exhibit delights kids of all ages with an impressive O gauge train display that includes a quarter mile of track. It is considered one of the top public exhibits of toy trains in the country, thanks to the efforts of the Caboose Club, the group of volunteers who operate the exhibit. It's open Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, 10 a.m. - 2 p.m.

All aboard! Enjoy a train ride around Heritage Park. Weather permitting, free rides are offered every Saturday, 10 a.m.–2 p.m., year-round, and Tuesdays and Thursdays, 10 a.m.–2 p.m., during the summer months. Board in front of the Depot Museum at 125 E. Laurel Ave.

The Depot Museum displays memorabilia and photos that document Foley's history and the important part the railroad played in developing this area. 125 E. Laurel Ave., Foley, Alabama. Open Monday–Saturday, 10 a.m.–3 p.m. www.VisitFoley.com

GRAHAM CREEK NATURE PRESERVE

This 487-acre preserve serves as Foley's back yard, offering rustic hiking trails, a kayak launch, archery ranges, disc golf courses, an interpretive nature center and wetland boardwalk all located in pristine surroundings. Here you'll find a quiet space to enjoy wildflowers, bird watching and a nice sunset—or an idyllic setting for outdoor experiences on the creek or trails. The preserve and restroom facilities are open daily from dawn to dusk. 23030 Wolf Bay Drive, Foley, Alabama. Check website for Interpretive Nature Center hours. www.GrahamCreekPreserve.org

WOLF CREEK PARK

This almost-hidden park provides access to Wolf Creek, offering a kayak launch for non-motor vessels. The boardwalk through the beautiful wetland of cypress trees opens to the main channel for fishing and bird watching. 9575 Wolf Creek Road, Elberta, Alabama.

COASTAL ALABAMA FARMERS AND FISHERMENS MARKET

Get the freshest ingredients at our local market, where you can purchase fruits and vegetables straight from the farmers who grew them. Fresh Gulf seafood from shrimp to fillets, and grass-fed beef and pork are also available. 20733 Mifflin Rd., Foley, Alabama. Check website for hours. www.CoastalAlabamaMarket.com

HOLMES MEDICAL MUSEUM

Visit Baldwin County's first hospital, which served this area from 1936 until 1958. Take the self-guided tour to learn about medical equipment and patient rooms as they would have appeared in the 1930s and '40s. Open Monday through Saturday, 10 a.m.–3 p.m. Located at 111 W. Laurel Ave. Foley, Alabama.

ANTIQUE ROSE TRAIL

Take a walk along the Wilbourne Antique Rose Trail and enjoy the delicate beauty and fragrance of hundreds of heritage roses. The nearly mile-long trail follows a path parallel to Highway 59 through historic Foley, and is open from dawn until dusk. Ample parking is available at Heritage Park. Roses are at peak bloom in early spring, but the nicely landscaped trail is a lovely place for walking throughout the year. www.VisitFoley.com

